Actor

ABC Corporation - 2004 – 2005

- I went to different high schools and put on a skit about how prescription drug abuse is common for adolescents.
- My character was Jamie, she was dealing with her parents divorce and turned to drugs to help, but ultimately went to rehab and counseling to help solve her issues.
- Would also help put up and tear down the set.
- I was one of many people who had played Jamie, but once I started playing her, I was never moved from the role because I played it so well.
- Impacted many teens lives.
- Some teens would come up to me afterward and say that their parents were going through a divorce and they had thought about drug use, but since they had heard what I said about drug use, they decided that that was not what they wanted for themselves.
- Skills Used I used quick thinking, public speaking, improvisation, and memorization during this job.
