

Objective

Bachelors Degree from accredited college/ university with successful completion of specific science courses AND a Masters Degree in Midwifery from an accredited midwifery educational program, required

Skills

Emotional and Mental strength.

Work Experience

Assistant Midwife

ABC Corporation - October 2014 – July 2015

- Directes-Entry Midwife Prenatal care and homebirth services Global Health, Educational and Technical Experience.
- Completes intrapartum medical records and other obligations before patient transfer to the post-partum unit.
- Conducts complete history and physical examinations/health assessments of patients/families with real or potential, acute, and/or chronic health problems in the outpatient setting.
- Provides referrals to other health professionals/community agencies, as needed.
- Initiates selected therapeutic and diagnostic procedures (including non stress testing and biophysical profiles), consultation and laboratory examinations, as needed.
- Provides maximum continuity of care for patients and families transitioning throughout the phases of antepartal/ labor/ delivery/ postpartal/ family planning-intercontraceptional care periods.
- Responsible for the management of the medically uncomplicated and low-risk patient throughout the maternity cycle.

Midwife

Delta Corporation - 2012 – 2014

- Admitted, transferred and discharged clients as ordered by the doctor.
- Monitored the vital signs of the pregnant and the newly delivered clients and their infants.
- Educated clients on nutrition, rest and exercises.
- Helped and calmed pregnant women during labor for safe delivery
- Inserted and cared for indwelling catheters.
- This is Dummy Description data, Replace with job description relevant to your current role.
- This is Dummy Description data, Replace with job description relevant to your current role.

Education

BS