

ROBERT SMITH

Curator I

info@qwikresume.com | <https://Qwikresume.com>

To work for a positive forward leaning company, starting a career which expands work experience while contributing to the success of that company. Completing a bachelor's degree while become a registered nurse.

1979 - 1981

CURATOR I - ABC CORPORATION

- Managed a service contract, with Office of General Services, that included maintaining, exhibiting, lecturing and proposal writing in support of a 110-piece art collection purchased with Percent for the Arts funds.
- Exhibition of the collection in the buildings gallery/assembly room, as well as traveling with a selection of the collection to other State Office buildings.
- Organized the collection and establishment of exhibition programs.
- Developed administrative procedures with the Office of General services.
- Successfully established procedures for individual artists exhibitions.
- Lectured throughout the State for the collection.
- Significantly increased in the States financial support of the collection.

1976 - 1979

CURATOR - ABC CORPORATION

- Cataloged and kept inventory of entire museum collection using DB Textworks, specialized museum software Research, development and set-up of all exhibits and displays.
- Acquired donations of Wabash County related artifacts including; a collection of mastodon bones recovered from the Wabash and White Rivers.
- Author of "Historically Speaking" a monthly history column for the Mt.
- Carmel Daily Republican Register newspaper.
- Conducted tours and public speaking events for clubs, school groups, churches and organizations.
- Nominated secretary of the Wabash County Chamber of Commerce Tourism Council.
- This is Dummy Description data, Replace with job description relevant to your current role.

EDUCATION

Master of Arts in African History - (Columbia University)

SKILLS

Zoo keeping.