

Objective

To obtain a position that will enable to use Fine Arts education and ability to work well with others within a professional setting.

Skills

Gemology, Salesmanship, Staff Coaching And Counseling, Clienteling And Relationship Building, Product Training.

Work Experience

Art Consultant III

Atlas Galleries - July 2015 – 2020

- Educate and speak with clients about each artists original artwork.
- knowledgeable in selling Master prints by such artists as Rembrandt, Picasso, Whistler, and Renoir.
- Communicate daily with international clientele via email and text messaging.
- Exceed personal sales goals.
- Skills Used Internet Explorer, Windows, Excel.
- Directing sales of both modern era and historic masters; highly-regarded for the ability to assist and communicate with customers.
- Create a new client base for a new gallery location.

Art Consultant

ABC Corporation - 2011 – 2015

- Represented 50 up-and-coming artist of multiple disciplines.
- Developed innovative initiatives relating to art staging and art education programs.
- Established and managed companys online presence including Facebook and Twitter.
- Supervised all volunteer staff, managed ticket slaes, and solicited sponsorship funds for non-profit art conference, NYC State of the Art at the SVA Theater Peter Lik Gallery - The Plaza, Art Consultant Sold over $25K in artwork over a 3-month contract.
- Created press packets for local designers and collectors.
- Managed daily operations of gallery and staff..
- This is Dummy Description data, Replace with job description relevant to your current role.

Education

Diploma in Gemology - (Paris Junior College)