

ROBERT SMITH

Patient Observer I

info@qwikresume.com | LinkedIn Profile | Qwikresume.com

An experienced and skilled healthcare assistant with the sound knowledge of technical support, and medical duties.

EXPERIENCE

Patient Observer I

ABC Corporation - APRIL 2015 - JUNE 2016

- Notifies nursing staff as needed when additional assistance is required.
- Observes patients with special needs and document it.
- Observes and reports information on high-risk patients.
- Ensures patient safety as well as for the safety of staff and peers.
- Delivers close patient care.
- Encourages patient participation in group activities.
- Works directly with nurses regarding patients care.

Patient Observer

Delta Corporation - 2014 - 2015

- My responsibility includes observe patients behavior as well as safety and provide companionship.
- Document behavior on chart /computer program medlinks.
- My accomplishments included being able to get into a hospital setting and apply some of my customer service skills as well as hands on skills learnt in school.
- Was also able to to learn more skills and bond with patients and staff members too.
- Skills Used I am able to use my bilingual skills and customer service skills as I talk to patient and help them with what they may need.
- Im also able to use some of my hands on nursing skills from school also as I help some of the staff on floor when needed.
- Per diem) Observe for the safety and comfort of the challenging patient who requires frequent or continual observation.

EDUCATION

- Associates Degree in Medical Assisting - 2009(McCann School of Business & Technology - Allentown, PA)

SKILLS

Hands On Personal Care, CPR, Microsoft Office, People Person/easy To Get Along With.