

ROBERT SMITH

Assistant Public Defender/Analyst

info@qwikresume.com | <https://Qwikresume.com>

Detail-oriented, conscientious and organized litigator with experience. Divided almost equally between defending and prosecuting criminal cases as well as prosecuting successful Medicaid fraud cases.

OCTOBER 2005 - DECEMBER 2011

ASSISTANT PUBLIC DEFENDER/ANALYST - ABC CORPORATION

- Managed a misdemeanor caseload of up to cases, represented clients from arraignment through trial.
- Currently managing a caseload from arraignment through trial.
- Conducted preliminary hearings, restitution hearings, motions, and contested hearings.
- Researching and drafting motions, including a Trombetta motion, Kellett motion, motion to quash Romero motion.
- Secured numerous dismissals of client cases prior to or on the day of trial.
- Assisting clients with case settlement, negotiating favorable dispositions with the District Attorney on behalf of clients.
- Criminal defense practice for indigent persons accused of crimes.

2001 - 2005

ASSISTANT PUBLIC DEFENDER - ABC CORPORATION

- Represented 300+ indigent persons accused of felonious offenses.
- Conducted extensive legal research.
- Negotiated and resolved numerous cases during mediation sessions with judges and district attorneys.
- Interviewed witnesses, clients, officers in regard to criminal complaints.
- Drafted and argued numerous motions.
- Attended court weekly to handle arraignments, bond hearings, motion hearings and probation revocations..
- This is Dummy Description data, Replace with job description relevant to your current role.

EDUCATION

Juris Doctor in Distinction - (University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law)

SKILLS

Criminal Defense, Technical Skills.