SUMMARY

I grew up in the wide open fields of Montana, and that's where I learned how to work hard and be passionate about the things I do. I am a collector of cool things. I love vintage, retro, modern, you name it. My absolute passion is Graphic Design and the rich history it holds. I am a graphic designer inspired by courageous color, tantalizing typography, and the adventure of discovering the little gems that build the perfect conceptual framework and design of any project.
