

Objective

To obtain a rewarding opportunity in Patient Observer position that will assist with personal growth and career advancement.

Skills

Patient assessment, medication administration, patient education.

Work Experience

Patient Observer III

ABC Corporation - 2010 – 2014

- Takes necessary steps to prevent patient from removing IV lines, or engaging in behaviors that may result in a fall, or further injury to themselves.
- Notifies nursing staff as needed when additional assistance is required.
- Initiates CPR if patient should have a Cardiopulmonary Arrest.
- Provides age specific assistance, with activities of daily living, such as feeding, ambulating, toileting, bathing, and therapeutic measures that will result in a lower level of agitation or higher level of comfort for the patient.
- Reports changes in the patients behavior to the RN.
- Assures a safe care environment for assigned patients and notifies RN of any concerns.
- Receives nursing handoff at beginning of shift regarding reason for observation with specific important information. Provides/Receives handoffs to/from Observer and RN with each change of observer and RN.

Patient Observer

Delta Corporation - 2009 – 2014

- Maintain safety of the patient Documentation of patient activity throughout shift Reporting to RN prior to and during shift Communication with MD, RN .
- Observe suicidal/homicidal, fall risk, and medical necessity patients, and record their activity in fifteenminute increments.
- Monitor and observe patient to prevent the causing of self-inflicted harm.
- Help patient with basic needs such as walking to and from bathroom, help patient in and out of bed as well as getting basic items such as; blankets, .
- Assisted RNs and CNAs with watching patients to ensure they didnt harm themselves or anyone while they were in the hospital Received "exemplary" and .
- Patient Safety.
- Observed patients to prevent harm to self and/or others.

Education

Clinical Mental Health Counseling - (Rutgers University Graduate School)