

ROBERT SMITH

Asst. Information Architect

info@qwikresume.com | <https://Qwikresume.com>

Seek an Information Architect position where can apply vast online application development and management experience to contribute to the growth of an organization.

NOVEMBER 2003 - FEBRUARY 2014

ASST. INFORMATION ARCHITECT - ABC CORPORATION

- Led selection and adoption of new information technologies and provided mentoring/training as needed during implementation and adoption periods.
- Led research and creation of implementation roadmaps for information domain initiatives such as master data, metadata, and data governance.
- Recently completed a white paper titled Master Data and Master Data Management Enabling the Business to Integrate and Consolidate Its Data, Code, Products, and Cores.
- Created proof-of-concept Master Data and Metadata hubs/repositories and services using DB2 and related IBM tools.
- Created conceptual and logical Common Banking Data Models for use in integrating and consolidating a large number of independently designed logical and physical data models using UML.
- Created process for creating database server vendor independent data models.
- Created relational, non-relational, hierarchical, and data dictionary based banking and financial services data models.

1998 - 2003

INFORMATION ARCHITECT - DELTA CORPORATION

- Instrumental in revenue growth and improving sales team effectiveness by defining processes aimed at allowing customers to leverage innovative Big .
- Sold current and prospective clients (C-level to End-user) on the efficacy of the Symedical Software Solution Facilitated comprehensive understanding .
- Designed a website which helps people to fit in leisure travel while on business trip.
- Conducted user research through survey and interviews, used affinity diagram to identify user requirements, and generated 4 personas based on research.
- Conducted card sort research, built site maps, and created wireframes in Balsamiq.
- Received the highest score in class, highly appreciated by the course professor.
- Responsible for implementing the metadata warehouse used to integrate database structure, user documentation, business rules, and system/ glossary .

EDUCATION

Masters Of Interactive Telecommunications In Interactive Telecommunications - (New York University - New York, NY)

SKILLS

MS Office, Management.