

Objective

A driven junior executive leader who is strategic and an expert in leading complex, matrixed, cross-functional organizations, people, processes and technology transformations. Recognized as a hands-on expert problem solver, who can resolve business problems by formulating strategic plans and implementing solutions that benefit any organization's bottom line.

Skills

Interpersonal Skills, MS Office, Data Entry.

Work Experience

Patent Examiner-Executive

ABC Corporation - February 2009 – May 2009

- Responsible for scrutinizing patent applications, determining the scope of protection claimed by the inventor, researching relevant technologies, and communicating findings.
- Review of technical information that regularly includes detailed schematics, 3-dimensional mechanical portrayed drawings or manufacturing process diagrams.
- Reviewed patent applications and wrote office actions in a production-oriented environment.
- Calibrate and testing materials with high power Interpret architectural drawings.
- Requirements of tasks require analytical ability to efficiently digest large volumes of scientific information.
- Patent examining functions included planning, conducting research, applying references to the patent applications, etc.
- Performed advanced patent examining functions and all determinations involving such functions.

Patent Examiner

ABC Corporation - 2005 – 2009

- Reviewed patent applications in the field of medical imaging and diagnostics to ensure novelty and compliance with all applicable U.S.
- Interpreted technical application details concerning various fields including ultrasound and MRI, as well as other optical imaging and electromagnetic therapy applications.
- Completed targeted searches in the various U.S. and international patent databases as well as scientific journals.
- Led meetings with clients attorneys concerning issues with claim construction and statute compliance as well as prior art rejections.
- Wrote office actions that assimilated teachings in the prior art relied upon to reject application claims.
- Responded appropriately to attorney responses concerning claim interpretation and obviousness of the applied prior art.
- Calibrate and testing materials with high power Interpret architectural drawings.

Education

MBA in Finance - (Johns Hopkins University - Baltimore, MD)