

Objective

Want to work, knowing all skills will be utilized in the best possible manner. Wish to serve a well known and reputed organization in a highly professional manner and work in the direction of success and betterment of the company.

Skills

Microsoft Office, Customer Service, Laboratory Etiquette, Banking, NMR Analysis.

Work Experience

Associate Lab Instructor

ABC Corporation - September 2011 – November 2011

- Developed teaching materials to introduce undergraduate students to the basic statistical methods that they would need to use for their research projects for the class.
- Included developing and grading the lab homework assignments on statistics.
- Helped students conceptualize and develop their group research projects.
- Provided students with feedback and was available for outside help on their individual research papers.
- Responsible for running Earth Science laboratory.
- Reinforces knowledge of earth's processes, rocks and soils.
- Taught preclinical and clinical operative dentistry, clinical endodontics for predoc students.

Lab Instructor

Delta Corporation - 2007 – 2011

- Demonstrated a continued commitment to undergraduate teaching through full participation in the college community.
- Pointed students to relevant information about chemistry and science useful to everyday life.
- Lahore, Pakistan Conducted and supervised the labs of Computer Logic Design, Introduction to Computing and Computer Programming for undergrad students.
- Taught and Instructed middle school students in completing a science experiment Supervised children while being responsible for educating youth on .
- This is Dummy Description data, Replace with job description relevant to your current role.
- This is Dummy Description data, Replace with job description relevant to your current role.
- This is Dummy Description data, Replace with job description relevant to your current role.

Education

Doctor of Philosophy in Counseling Psychology - August 2011(University of Florida - Gainesville, FL)