Performer

Disneyland Resort - 2010 - 2013

- I am responsible for keeping my body in shape and prepared to perform to the best of my abilities each day.
- Am also responsible for remembering all of my own choreography after it has been given to me, and performing consistently at the level they expect from me everyday.
- During my 8 years with the Disneyland resort I have learned 6 different shows.
- Skills Used Self Sufficiency is a big part of being a performer.
- We are responsible for being our own leader and making smart decisions while performing in the parade.
- Keeping an eye out to keep our environment safe is also key.
- Many kids and families show up to the resort each day, and even while we are multitasking during a performance it is also our responsibility to keep our eyes out for anything that could create an unsafe environment for us as performers and the guests..
