ROBERT SMITH
Information Architect I

info@qwikresume.com | LinkedIn Profile | Qwikresume.com

Information Architect IT professional with over 15 years of experience in areas such as content management, UX and information architecture, business analysis, project management, process improvement, data analysis, and programming.

EXPERIENCE

Information Architect I
ABC Corporation - JULY 2013 – SEPTEMBER 2014

- Designed effective SharePoint sites and site collections, from initial concept and requirements gathering to prototyping and site design.
- Analyzed information requirements for different types of users and organized and designed dynamic pages for each.
- Developed design and content solutions that were strategic, targeted, engaging and showed a clear understanding for the intended audiences.
- Designed information framework solutions that met the functional requirements of the business.
- Reviewed and developed design specifications to ensure standards were current and aligned with industry best practices.
- Documented processes implemented for requirements elicitation, usability tests employed & deliverables prepared to be repeatable with other departments.
- Ensured visual, functional, and conceptual consistency across sites and with other applications, such as CRM and KnowledgeLake.

Information Architect
Delta Corporation - 2009 – 2013

- Defined user interface and experience for proprietary customer relationship management systems groundsync.com Managed development team in India .
- Information Architect for the enterprise and the 787 program in support of Production Operations Domain.
- Technical consultant for information-related projects to ensure integration and relevance of architecture and system designs to business process .
- Act as liaison between Production Operations Domain and the Common Data Warehouse to assure interfaces are appropriately captured and information is .
- Knowledge of Dassault V5 Suite; CATIA, Enovia, and Delmia and the role they play in the 787 bill structure for BCA.
- Designed storyboards, high-level experience architecture, wireframes, and collaborated on a full-color prototype with a team of two other designers .

- Clients - HHS, BG&E, Johns Hopkins Applied Physics Laboratory Performed data and process modeling for various clients business areas using Zachman .

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Science in Economics (Major) and Human Resources (Minor) - 1990(University of Wisconsin - Madison, WI)

SKILLS

UX Design, Information Architecture.